Patient Privacy Notice

Because of a revision of the Data Protection Act 1988, the new General Data Protection Regulations requires Meddygfa Lansdowne Surgery to ensure that our patients are aware of what personal data we hold, how we collect that data and with whom the data is shared.

The Data Controller is: Meddygfa Lansdowne Surgery

The Data Protection Officer is: The Practice Manager

- We collect and hold data about you for the purpose of providing safe and effective healthcare
- Your information may be shared with our partner Health Care organisations to audit services and help provide you with better care
- Information sharing is subject to strict agreements on how it is used and we will only share your information outside of our partner organisations with your consent*
- If you do not want your information to be used for any purpose beyond providing your care please let us know so we can code your record appropriately
- You can object to sharing information with other health care providers but if this limits your treatment options we will tell you
- Our guiding principle is that we are holding your information in the strictest confidence
- If you are happy with how we use your information you do not need to do anything
- More information on how we store and use your data can be obtained from the practice website from 25th May 2018

*Unless the health & safety of others is at risk, the law requires it or it is required to carry out a statutory function
